CALL SHERMAN BEFORE COMMITTEE

Hamon Alleged to Have Told Blind Senator Executive Favored Deal by Which Lawyers Were to Receive $3,000,000 in Indian Land Fees.

MUSKOGEE, OKLA.—Special.—It was announced by the chairman of the Congressional Investigation Committee this afternoon that Vice President Sherman will not be called to the stand to testify in the hearing. This was decided upon after a conference of the committee members.

MUSKOGEE, OKLA.—Special.—Vice President Sherman, United States Senator Charles C. McGuffey, and Jacob Hamon, of Lawton, Okla., will be asked before the congressional committee investigating the Indian land contracts to give their testimony, according to a statement made today by one of the committee members.

Justice to those whose names have been involved in the case through the testimony of Senator Gore, said the committee members, and that they tell their stories and stand examination.

Representative Bird S. McGuire, also a member of the committee, arrived here today from Guthrie.

Mr. McGuire is ready to go on the stand, he said. "My record is clean and I am anxious for a chance to vindicate myself."

Senator Gore refused to discuss the case this morning. "The matter is in the hands of the committee," was his reply. "I am satisfied with the progress I have made, however."

MUSKOGEE, OKLA.—Special.—Jake L. Hamon, former chairman of the Republican Territorial Committee and the main accused by Senator Gore and Congressman C. E. Creager of attempting to bribe them in the Indian land case, was called to the witness stand at the congressional investigation shortly before noon today.

Hamon's testimony was a complete denial of Gore's charges. He declared he never made an offer of a $25,000 or a $50,000 bribe to any of the witnesses. He never discussed the McGuffey contracts with Gore nor said anything about "all clean" money. He said that the McGuffey contracts were a fraud and that the McGuffey statement on the stand supporting Gore was a fake.

That Hamon had suggested to Congressman Creager that he might take an interest in the Indian land contracts in return for the declaration made by the latter while he was on the stand this morning at the second day's hearing of the special congressional committee investigating certain bribes was made by Senator Thomas P. Gore.

Gore Talks More Freely.

Senator Gore talked a little more freely when he reached the hearing chamber, however. He said that "I am well pleased with the first day's progress of the charges launched by me in the closing of the last session."

"I think I have made my charges stick that I was offered $50,000 to withdraw my opposition to the McGuffey contracts," he said. "I am a member of the Choctaw and Chickasaw tribes of Indians, and the committee, I think, will sustain me."

He said that he was forced to repeat the statement made to me that Vice President Sherman, Senator Curtis, of Kansas, and Representative McGuire, of Oklahoma, were interested in the McGuffey contracts. I do not see how the committee can do otherwise than sustain my charges of attempted bribery, especially since Representative Creager substantiated my statement that Jake L. Hamon, of Lawton, had been busy on the contracts and had offered him an interest in them.

"I will sum up only two or three more witnesses."

TOPEKA, KAN.—Special.—United States Senator Charles Curtis, of Kansas, today reiterated his willingness to appear before the congressional committee at Muskogee, Okla., and refute the allegations made yesterday by Senator Gore who accused him of being interested in the $3,000,000 Indian land deal.

Senator Curtis declared that he had legislative record showed that he had consistently opposed attempts to wring extortionate counsel fees from the Indian land owners.

BIG MOOSE, N. Y.—Special.—Vice President James S. Sherman has issued the following statement concerning the charges made by Senator Gore at Muskogee yesterday:

"The story that comes to me about the charges made by Senator Gore at Muskogee yesterday is absolutely without the slightest shadow of foundation."

MUSKOGEE, OKLA.—Special.—What happened in the private office of United States Senator Thomas P. Gore, at Washington, at noon last May 6th formed the basis of sensational charges involving the names of Vice President Sherman, Senator Charles Curtis, of Kansas; Representative B. S. McGuire, of Oklahoma, and others, in a hearing before a special congressional investigating committee here yesterday.

During the thirty or forty minutes of a conference held in that office Senator Gore testified that he had been approached by Jake L. Hamon, former chairman of the Oklahoma Territorial Republican Committee and also former chairman of the Oklahoma story, Creager, who offered him $25,000 or $50,000 to remove certain legislation pending in Congress so that $3,000,000 might be paid to J. P. Murray, an attorney at McAlester, Okla., and his associates.

This money was to represent "attorneys' fees" of 10 per cent of $50,000,000, which was to be secured from a New York syndicate for 450,000 acres of coal and asphalt lands now owned by the Choctaw and Chickasaw Indians in that State.

Said Sherman was interested.

Vice President Sherman's name was mentioned by Mr. Hamon, Senator Gore testified, as being interested in the land deal. The extent of favoring the approval by Congress of what are known as the McGuffey contracts with the Indians.

What happened in another private room in Washington, and also where it was alleged Hamon made more "overtures" relative to the land deal was told by Representative C. E. Creager, of the Third Oklahoma District. Representative Creager supplemented the testimony of Senator Gore, he said on June 16th last, he had been invited by Hamon to meet him in a private room at the Occidental Hotel in Washington.

Mr. Creager testified he was informed he could have a substantial "interest" in the land deal if he would withdraw his opposition to the approval of the McGuffey contracts by Congress.

Asked the question: "Were any figures mentioned as to how much you were to receive?" Mr. Creager replied:

"No; I did not let it go so far as that."

Clerks of Senator Gore testified to having been invited by McMurray and Hamon to "frog leg" supper at Washington, at which the Indian contracts were to be "talked over."

No Checks or Marked Money.

Senator Gore, in his testimony, asserted that the offer of bribery went so far that Hamon said to him: "Well, you know there is a lot of money in this thing. If you say the word I will arrange for the $50,000. There will be no checks in this deal, and no marked money. It will be all new, clean money."

Hamon said: "There's a lot of money tied up in this deal and a big fee for somebody."

"He then explained he wanted me to withdraw my bill or at least have it reported unfavorably. It seems he did not know it had already been reported favorably."

The committee that heard the charge was appointed by resolution of the House of Representatives to investigate the McGuffey contracts, which are declared to have been made by McMurray individually with each of the Indians, each of whom agreed to turn over 10 per cent of his profits from the sale of land, provided the contracts were approved by Congress.

The committee, headed by Representative Charles H. Burke, of South Dakota, chairman, is composed of Congressmen Philip P. Campbell, of Kansas; Charles B. Miller, of Minnesota; John H. Stephens, of Texas, and E. W. Saunders, of Virginia. Its initial session was held today. Representative Creager's appearance on the witness stand followed a series of sensational statements.

Some of Gore's Charges.

Among Senator Gore's assertions were the following:

That Hamon told him that a man "higher up" in the government was interested in the approval of the McGuffey contracts, and therefore, there was no reason why Senator Gore should not let that man "higher up" have the man "higher up" Hamon had replied "Vice President Sherman."

That Hamon told him Senator Curtis, of Kansas, was "interested" in the deal.

That Hamon told him Congressman McGuire, of Oklahoma, was "interested" in the deal.

That Hamon told him an employee of the Department of Justice at Washington was "interested" in the deal; that he (Senator Gore) knew the name of the employee, but would not divulge his name or the name of his informant, who confirmed this statement especially because the latter would lose his position.

The former Senator Long, of Kansas, acting as counsel for McMurray, had gone to President Taft on April 18th to urge the approval of the McGuffey contracts, but that the President had said:

"It would take a good deal of argument to convince him that the amount of fee asked by McMurray was justified."

Curtis Telegraphs Denial.

Senator Curtis yesterday sent a telegram to the committee denying that he was in any way interested in the McGuffey contracts, and offering to appear before the committee. Senator Curtis will be subpoenaed to testify.

That part of Senator Gore's testimony referring to Vice President Sherman follows:

Mr. Burke—In your conversation with Mr. Hamon you stated he named very high official that he said was interested in these contracts. You omitted his name.

Mr. Gore—I say again that I should very much prefer not to name him. I am, however, subject to the will of the committee.

Mr. Burke—The committee is here to get the facts and we must have all this conversation.

Mr. Gore—He suggested that Vice President Sherman was interested in the contracts.

Hamon then mentioned a certain Senator and said he was interested in the contracts. It was Senator Curtis. He (Hamon) also mentioned Congressman McGuire as being interested in the McGuffey contracts.

Thomas H. Owen, counsel for Mr. Gore—in that connection you speak of Theodore Roosevelt, who was in the newspaper that two gentlemen had called on the President. I wish you would say who was mentioned in that article.

Mr. Gore—In the newspaper of April 17th, Vice President Sherman and Senator Curtis were named as having called to discuss the segregated coal and asphalt lands before the committee. I met the next day the information came to me.

Congressman Creager did not take the stand until late in the day. Asked what he had to say, Mr. Hamon replied: "I met him by appointment at his rooms at the Occidental Hotel in Washington. He said he was interested in the McGuffey contracts."

"Interest" was suggested.

"At that time efforts were being made to have the President approve of the McGuffey contracts. I already had gone on record as being opposed to their approval. When I got to the hotel Hamon began to urge me to withdraw my opposition. He suggested I might have an interest in the contracts."

Congressman Miller—Were any figures mentioned?

Mr. Creager—No; I did not let it go as far as that. I made my language pretty emphatic.

Congressman Stephens—You mean to say that you regarded the offer of such a character as to arouse your indignation?

Mr. Creager—Yes; that's it. I regarded it as an offer to influence my attitude toward the McGuffey contracts, even suggested that I call together all the officials I could and defeat the McGuffey contracts. I suggested that I would make no statement.

Recalled to the stand, Senator Gore was asked to mention the name of the employee of the Department of Justice who had told him that another employee of the Department of Justice was interested in the McGuffey contracts.

"That I could not do," replied Senator Gore. "I was not in that department in confidence, and I regret that it was mentioned here at all."

"Now," interrupted Congressman Campbell, "don't you think it unfair to go as far before this committee as to tell yet not know? You know we are here to learn the truth, and we would like to have all of it made known."

Will Not Endanger Employee.

"No, I would rather not. It is well known that heretofore employees of the department have lost their positions for giving information, and I would rather let this feature of the investigation be dropped."

NEW TARIFF LAW BEST EVER PASSED

Taft Declares G. O. P. Has Kept Faith With Voters.

CHICAGO, ILL.—Special.—The Chicago Tribune Saturday prints the news of President Taft on the Republican party's conduct, the tariff and other questions. John Callan O'Loughlin, friend of Theodore Roosevelt, having secured an interview with Mr. Taft at Beverly.

Though not directly quoted, it is plain that Mr. Taft believes the new tariff law is the best ever passed, and holds that the G. O. P. has kept faith with the voters.

He gives the insurgents no credit for accomplishments.

The President is not quoted, owing to the rule which applies to interviews with Presidents of the United States, but his position is made perfectly clear in the brief, Mr. Taft believes: The Republican party is the party of execution.

The "regulars" and not the "insurgents" are the ones who accomplished the progress.

Has Fulfilled Pledges.

The party has fulfilled all pledges. It has been efficient and effective in administration.

It has enacted wise and progressive legislation in the interests of the people.

The present tariff is the best the United States ever had.

Under the circumstances it is meet that the party which has done this should give the party formal endorsement by continuing it in power.

According to Taft the people have little idea of the importance of the legislative problems which will come up for solution during the next Congress, the last of the administration.

Before December 1st the Supreme Court will have handed down its decisions in the Standard Oil cases and the tobacco trust cases.

If the Government be beaten, he believes, it will be a universal demand for the strengthening of the anti-trust laws.

Has Solution Framed.

Mr. Taft already has framed a solution of the cases in his Federal incorporation plan for all corporations adopted an interstate business which he submitted in a special message last winter.

Further conservative reforms along the lines of conservation of natural resources are planned and more economies in Government are on the program.

Mr. Taft does not favor the appointment of a tariff commission, but one of the things praised most highly by him is the new tariff court.

The postal savings law, the conservation law, which enables the government to own 70,000,000 acres of coal and water power sites; the campaign publicity law, and several others came in for praise.

President Taft does not believe Cannon is a real issue any more. He declares he could not again be elected to the position he now holds.

Taft believed the war should be encouraged by its acts and upon the presentation he makes, he asks how approval well can be withheld.

OMAHA, NEB.—Special.—Leon J. Millard, president of the Independence Lumber Company, had to keep to his berth on his arrival in Omaha this morning because his trousers were stolen from his Pullman berth while he slept.

Mr. Millard was en route to this city on a Burlington train from Kansas City. The train stopped through the window and grabbed his trousers while the train stood in the yards at St. Joseph. He also got $200 in money and checks and a monogram watch and chain.

Mrs. Millard was notified of her husband's plight and sped to the train with wearing apparel.

Polaire's Negro "Slave."

NEW YORK.—Special.—Mlle. Polaire, the dancer, who poses as "the homeliest woman in the world," who sailed yesterday on the Kaiser Wilhelm, is accompanied by a Jamaican negro boy about 10 years old. He had around his neck a silver chain, from which hung a big round silver tag reading "Jimmy George. Jesus's favorite de Mlle. Polaire. M'menez la."

She said she carried her "slave" in the Negro Young Men's Christian Association, and that George stood silent and grined.

Florence Ziegfeld, Jr., who said he was going abroad to bring back his wife, Anna Held, also sailed on the Kaiser.

HAS TENDERLY PUT IT AWAY

BREECHESS LEG FILED WITH THE RECORDS OF THE SUPREME COURT.

RICHMOND, VA.—Special.—The breeches leg of Charles Fountain, the Louisiana county murderer who filed this portion of his blue jeans pants as an exhibit in his petition for a new trial will be carefully stored away in the archives of the Virginia Supreme Court by Clerk Stewart Jones.

Nobody is apt to steal the derelict leg in question, for it is bespattered with mud, and, according to the allegations of the prosecution, has the blood of the dead man, Burney Bunch, on it.

It is no new thing for the Supreme Court to receive gawsome exhibits along with the petitions of convicts, but it is sometimes a problem to know where to store them.

In the case of Sam Hardy, convicted of the murder of Tiberius Gracchus Jones, a pistol and part of the silver tag used in that homicide, were sent to the appellate court to emphasize, in concrete form, some of the statements made by counsel.

Durham, the administration of Governor O'Ferrall, that Executive was asked to exercise clemency in the case of a negro who had killed a white man. The prisoner's counsel, who had been a seductive lawyer, made the point that the negro's victim was a man of unusually thin skull.

To prove this, he brought the Executive several bits of bone from the unfortunate laid low by the black man, certainly did have a thin skull, the repulsive exhibit did not suffice to evoke clemency on the part of the Executive.

The negro got what was coming to him on the gallows.

LADY FAINTED; HE SOUGHT LIQUOR

WHY FOUR AND TWENTY KICKED ONE ANOTHER ON THE FLYING DAY COACH

RICHMOND, VA.—Special.—Despite the fact that the weather was beastly hot, the twenty or more men in the day coach speeding on its way to Richmond were faring pretty comfortably until all of a sudden a wildly excited individual burst in upon them.

"Anybody got any whiskey?" he bawled out in tones of the greatest trepidation. "A lady in the pulman has fainted."

Simultaneously four and twenty sympathizing motorists produced flasks from their pistol pockets, satchels, handbags and valises.

The excited individual saw before him a plethora of booze. With a degree of calmness strangely at variance with the feverishness of his first remarks, he leaned over to the man nearest him and took from this good soul's hand a seductive looking half pint flask, daintily covered with leather and tipped with silver.

Then, to the amazement of all, the excited individual, growing calmer every second, placed the bottle to his lips and sucked long and lovingly thereat, until the half had nearly all disappeared.

This act over, he turned the flask and placidly said: "Thank you, gentles, I always feel that I want whiskey when I see a lady faint."

For a moment the excited individual had disappeared, the feet of the four and twenty men who had proffered their booze, were kept in motion. They were engaged in kicking each other.

VISITS RICHMOND AFTER 18 YEARS

W. H. WINFREE, OF SPOKANE, ATTENDS FAMILY REUNION—LEAVES FOR HOME.

RICHMOND, VA.—Special.—Mr. W. H. Winfree, of Spokane, Wash., is in Richmond on his first visit for eighteen years. He came to visit his parents, Captain and Mrs. George Winfree, North Twenty-ninth Street. When he alighted from the train he was as a stranger in a strange land, not recognizing his surroundings and knowing none other than the members of his family who greeted him at the station. Mr. Winfree has been engaged in the practice of law since he went West, having graduated from Washington and Lee University and later read law with Coke & Pickrell, in this city.

Mr. Winfree had to come to New York on professional business, and took advantage of the trip to come to Richmond. He stopped in Baltimore and brought his sister from that city along with him to Richmond, and on Thursday night there was a family reunion at the home of the parents.

Yesterday Mr. Winfree took all the members of the family on an automobile trip to the old family home in Chesterfield, some twenty miles from Richmond, visiting Drewry's Bluff and various other places. There were few of the old places which were familiar to him. He will leave for his Western home this evening, taking an early train for Spokane. Mr. Winfree has prospered in his Western home.

ROANOKE, VA.—Special.—News reached here from Montvale, Bedford County, that the woman entered Dr. Stuart's rooms by means of keys which she found in the open desk in his downtown office, and shot him behind the ear as he slept. She was driven to the deed by her mad infatuation for the young man, and the knowledge that he was to have been married to Miss Alice Pauline Simpson, of Lawton, Okla. August 1st, that her infatuation for him had turned the pistol upon herself.

DEFENDS MEMORY OF DR. STUART

INTIMATE FRIEND OF MURDERED PHYSICIAN TELLS OF CASE.

WINCHESTER, VA.—Special.—That young Dr. George Murray Stuart, who was recently shot and killed by Edna Wallace in Pittsburgh, Pa., had never been unduly friendly with the woman who shot him, was asserted yesterday by Dr. L. M. McHaffey, of Pittsburgh. Dr. Stuart's closest friend, Dr. McHaffey made the following statement: "I have known Dr. Stuart intimately for the past six or seven years. He was a man of good character and lovable disposition. His morals were above the average of those of young men of the present day. He did not drink at all, to my certain knowledge; he smoked moderately, and I am positive when I say that he was a clean man in his relations with women."

"Dr. Stuart met the Wallace woman in a professional way, and performed an operation upon her about a year ago in a Pittsburgh hospital. The woman became infatuated with the young surgeon. He resolutely refused to have anything to do with her, and she never heard from him since over the telephone, when she would call him. 'I have told you that I don't want to have anything to do with you.'"

"There is not the smallest doubt that the woman entered Dr. Stuart's rooms by means of keys which she found in the open desk in his downtown office, and shot him behind the ear as he slept. She was driven to the deed by her mad infatuation for the young man, and the knowledge that he was to have been married to Miss Alice Pauline Simpson, of Lawton, Okla. August 1st, that her infatuation for him had turned the pistol upon herself."
